For purposes of this Article 4, Third Party does not include the Data Controller or the Data Processor or other person authorized to process data for the Data Controller.

Article 5: Indemnification

5.1 Indemnification by Parties. Client and CultureIQ (each, in such capacity, the "Indemnifying Party") agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the other party, and its respective Affiliates, directors and employees, (each, an "Indemnified Party"), from and against any and all damage, liability, and expense, including reasonable legal fees and expenses ("Losses"), awarded or paid in settlement of any claim, demand, action or proceeding by any third party brought against such Indemnified Party ("Claim"), in each case to the extent directly and proximately arising from or by reason of any actual or alleged infringement of any Intellectual Property Rights arising out of any materials supplied to the Indemnified Party by the Indemnifying Party.

5.3 Obligation. At the Indemnifying Party's election, the Indemnified Party will allow the Indemnifying Party to either obtain for the Indemnified Party the right to continue using the affected material, replace it, modify it so it becomes non-infringing, or, in the case of CultureIQ (and at CultureIQ's sole discretion), require return of such infringing material and then refund to Client the amount(s) paid to CultureIQ for Services not yet rendered.

5.4 Sole Remedy. This Article shall constitute a Party's sole and exclusive remedy at law hereunder in connection with any Claim brought against such Party by a third party alleging actual or alleged infringement of any Intellectual Property Rights.

Consequently, in the event of a breach or threatened breach by a Party, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled, without the requirement of posting a bond or other security, to seek equitable relief, including injunctive relief and specific performance. The Parties agree that any such equitable relief is in addition to all other available remedies set forth herein and shall not preclude the non-breaching Party from seeking other available remedies set forth herein.
